

Wymeswold Parish Council

Notice of Casual Vacancy

Following the recent resignation of one of our dedicated Councillors, Wymeswold now has a Councillor vacancy available on Wymeswold Parish Council.

Are you interested in helping the village and joining the team?

The Parish Council has the heart of the village in mind and plays a pivotal role in ensuring that the village retains its character, its sense of community and serves the residents of Wymeswold. Being part of the team means that you can directly contribute to all of the above and more and help make a real difference.

As a Parish Councillor, ideally you will need to have some knowledge of the village and its history, be an enthusiastic driving force in the village, be a voice for your community, and be willing to give up some of your time to add value and contribute to your local community and its residents. No prior experience is necessary though.

In order to stand for this position, an applicant must not be debarred from standing as a Councillor, and must meet at least one of the following criteria:

- The applicant's name must appear on the current Register of Electors list
- The applicant should during the whole of the twelve months preceding the relevant date have resided in or within three miles of Wymeswold
- The applicant's only place of work during the whole of the twelve months preceding the relevant date is in the parish

If you are interested in hearing more about filling one of this vacancy and how you can make a difference to your wonderful village, please get in touch with one of the following...
